Message from Rev. Bruce Nakamura

1ST ANNUAL VETERANS & FAMILIES BON MEMORIAL AT VETERAN'S CEMETERY HANAPEPE

Please join veterans and our families for the first annual Veterans and Families Bon Memorial at Veteran's Cemetery Hanapepe on June 29th and August 3rd, Saturdays from 8:30-9:30am, at the Kaua'i Veteran's Shelter-Pavilion. These community inter-Faith events on both Kauai and other islands hail the importance of remembering and honoring our family citizen soldiers and families with love, appreciation and dignity.

On Oahu the Memorial Day weekend is highlighted by a Lantern Floating Ceremony, an annual special community event hosted by the Shinnyo-En Buddhist Community. On Kauai the Pure Land Buddhist communities of Koloa Jodo and Kapaa Jodo will too, highlight their Bon Festivals with the Toro Nagashi Ceremony on the weekends of July 5-6 and August 2-3 ceremonies.

The Toro Nagashi consists of inscribing loved ones' names onto lanterns—lit and taken, bound on water crafts by its volunteers. The holy prayers of Amida Buddha—the limitless Light-Life Buddha's great vows assure the attainment of Birth into His Pure Land of supreme peace and true happiness by those who simply entrust themselves in His great compassionate Vow and Name—Namo Amida Butsu.

The Koloa Jodo Toro Nagashi evokes the spiritual coming back and Bon reunion of loved ones with family and loved ones back to this world of existence from Amida's Pure Land. The Kapaa Jodo Toro Nagashi evokes the Bon community's honoring and spiritual devotion of family-loved ones and signals their return to Amida's country of supreme Peace and Joy. Every Obon season celebrates this spiritual journey through ceremony and dance. These rites of passage emphasize the enlightened Buddhas' and Bodhisattvas' vows fulfilled and directed to various worlds of birth-and-death—past, present and future—embracing all without discrimination.

As part of the present generation, many who have not been witness and fought in various conflict and wars throughout our nation's history, we as Kauai communities are called upon to remember and honor our citizen soldiers and families. Please take time during the Bon season to adorn the graves, niches with flowers and prayers as we are reminded of a universal compassion and care so often taken for granted as such—just as the air we breathe. These year's Bon Veteran's Hanapepe Cemetery services are hosted by the Hongwanji Kauai Minister's association.

Our sincerest appreciation and for their support go out to the Department of Parks & Recreation Director and Deputy-director, Mr. Leanord Rapozo Jr. and Mr. Ian Costa; the Hawaii Office of Veterans' Services; the Kauai Veterans Council and the Kauai Veterans Cemetery staff. For inquiry, assistance and information, please contact Bruce Nakamura, c/o the Lihue Hongwanji community—a Shin Pure Land Buddhist community at 245-6262.

KAUAI VETERANS CEMETERY HANAPEPE VETERANS FAMILY BON APPRECIATION DAY

Confronted by fears, still, they did not waver.
Lest others should go, they said, "I'll go on over..."
So doing the deed, yelling, "GO FO BROKE!..."
Spilling blood and guts, they stood and fought!
Too few returned, having lived the tale;
Surviving the horror, how did they prevail?

Today and tomorrow we'll still hear of them;
When as if forever, when all hell broke loose.
Of brothers and sisters who left loved ones behind,
Knowingly, they gave their pains of every-kind.
Please forget not, their courage, brothers, hand-in-hand;
Making our beloved America, so free a Land.

This inspirational message was shared by Rev. Tatsuo Muneto at our Gotan-e Service held in May in a video presentation. Several versions of it can be found on YouTube.

Lessons from Geese

It is essential to remember that teamwork happens when it is continually nurtured and encouraged.

Lesson 1 - The Importance of Achieving Goals As each goose flaps its wings it creates an UPLIFT for the birds that follow. By flying in a 'V' formation the whole flock adds 71 percent extra to the flying range. Outcome When we have a sense of community and focus, we create trust and can help each other to achieve our goals.

Lesson 2 - The Importance of Team Work When a goose falls out of formation it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of flying alone. It quickly moves back to take advantage of the lifting power of the birds in front. Outcome If we had as much sense as geese we would stay in formation with those headed where we want to go. We are willing to accept their help and give our help to others.

Lesson 3 - The Importance of Sharing When a goose tires of flying up front it drops back into formation and another goose flies to the point position. Outcome It pays to take turns doing the hard tasks. We should respect and protect each other's unique arrangement of skills, capabilities, talents and resources.

Lesson 4 - The Importance of Empathy and Understanding When a goose gets sick, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to the ground to help and protect it. Outcome If we have as much sense as geese we will stand by each other in difficult times, as well as when we are strong.

Lesson 5 - The Importance of Encouragement Geese flying in formation 'HONK' to encourage those up front to keep up with their speed. Outcome We need to make sure our honking is encouraging. In groups and teams where there is encouragement, production is much greater. 'Individual empowerment results from quality honking'

Monshu's Message delivered following the annual commemoration of the Establishment of Jodo Shinshu on April 15, 2013

On this occasion, I would like to announce that on June 5, 2014, I will be retiring from the positions of jushoku, head resident minister of the Hongwanji temple and monshu of the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha Buddhist organization. It has been 36 years since I assumed those posts in April 1977.

My predecessor, Shonyo Shonin, made his decision to retire at the conclusion of the combined observance of the 800th Anniversary of Shinran Shonin's Birth and 750th Anniversary of the Establishment of Jodo Shinshu.

The 750th Memorial for Shinran Shonin was duly completed last year and I was fortunate to be able to officiate as the doshi, chanting leader, for many times, including the final session. Further, organizational restructuring of the Hongwanji temple and Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha institution has also been completed in accordance with the changes in society. A decade from now, the 850th Anniversary of Shinran Shonin's Birth will be observed. I feel that this is an opportune time to take a new step forward.

Shimmon, who will succeed me to become the next monshu, has been engaged in various temple matters at Tsukiji Hongwanji as the fuku-jushoku, vice-resident minister, while also visiting various affiliated temples in the Tokyo metropolitan area as well as many other regions to deepen his understanding of the current situation of our organization. I have confidence in him that he will become a new leader with fresh ideas and sufficient knowledge.

Here at Hongwanji, it is common that preparations for a certain event are begun more than a year beforehand. In following this custom and in order to make the transition as smooth as possible, I have taken this opportunity today to make this announcement.

Needless to say, even after retiring from the post of monshu, I will still remain as a Jodo Shinshu minister, and I will definitely continue my efforts to contribute towards the propagation of Jodo Shinshu and the prosperity of our organization.

Shimmon's Message delivered following the annual commemoration of the Establishment of Jodo Shinshu on April 15, 2013

As you heard just now, I will carry on the Jodo Shinshu tradition from June 2014.

The teaching of Jodo Shinshu has been transmitted for 790 years since Shinran Shonin completed his literary work, Kyōgyōshinshō (The True Teaching, Practice and Realization of the Pure Land Way). The truth expounded in it teaches us to become aware of our own self-centeredness and to revere and cherish every life regardless of self and other. I believe that this teaching is invaluable and most appropriate in regard to the chaotic state of contemporary society.

In sincere consideration of the illustrious history of this Jodo Shinshu tradition, I will endeavor to the utmost to transmit it to future generations.

JENNIFER TAIRA COMPOSES NEW GATHA

On May 21, 2013, composer Jennifer Taira was presented with a commission check of $1,000 by Bishop Eric Matsumoto for composing the music to the text of Buddha's Great Light by Carrie Kawamoto, winner of the 2011 Gatha Lyrics Contest. The music of the new gatha was designed for a contemporary feel and to be sung by congregation or by two- or three-voice choir. This new work is expected to be featured at Choralfest 2014, tentatively planned for early fall of next year at the Hawaii Betsuin.

Ask Rev. Bruce

Q: “What is the Middle Way as the living practice of Buddha-dharma?”

A: Siddhartha as a child and youth was shielded from the world of impermanence, old age, illness and death—the sacred legend say. This phase of his human pathway is termed the life of earthly delights or hedonism—one form of extreme life practices.

His renunciation and spiritual search under various teachers for enlightenment according to the traditions took on seven years of extreme asceticism and self-mortification. At death’s door’s step he vowed to revive and renew his spiritual search through a middle path—between extreme hedonism and asceticism.

Siddhartha Gotama would realize his enlightenment after 49 days of deep Samadhi meditation under the Bodhi tree—the ancient tree that symbolizes Hindu-Buddhist enlightenment. Truly a unique person and human being, his middle path is not the middle path we all walk or practice. No one will really knows exactly what SAKYAMUNI BUDDHA’S MIDDLE WAY REALLY WAS.

However, in our own self-discoveries, awareness and awakenings, we too, shall be revealed the middle-way of our own spiritual sojourn. This pathway will not be as any other; like each leaf unfolding to bud on the branches of the Boh tree, each being’s enlightenment is unique and special.

Yet, each person’s enlightenment brings a shared awareness that we learn and struggle to gain freedom from our self-serving concerns through the service and compassion toward other beings. The fullest expression of enlightenment is not merely our own self-inquiry and discovery; it awakens us to our shared journey to uplift our common dignity that mirrors the true nobility of human-kind.

Got something on your mind? Submit your questions to Rev. Bruce by email to lhmnw@yahoo.com, by mail, or by dropping it in the slot in the door to his office. Including your name is optional.

Note that he may edit the question for brevity.

Hoshakai needs you!

Have you noticed that the church grounds are always beautiful, tidy, and trimmed? Have you wondered who keeps the temple sparkling clean and the flowers fresh and arranged? It’s all thanks to a dedicated group of men and women called the Hoshakai group. They gather at the temple every Friday at 7:00 AM and volunteer two or three hours of their time. Like all of us, they have busy lives and have other things to do too. Many of them are elderly, and find it increasingly difficult to manage the work.

You don’t have to commit to every week. You don’t need to be skilled. You don’t need to bring any tools or equipment. If you are willing to help, on Fridays or any other time, please call Ted Inouye at 245-3027.
