Message from Rev. Bruce Nakamura

...Of Course...Yes!

BY BRUCE Y. NAKAMURA

All Japanese Buddhists observe the first (hatsubon) family service through their various religious traditions. The season of Obon is a significant chapter in the sacred story of not only some peoples or cultures, but really, of all peoples and cultures. The season of Obon through services, communal gatherings and cultural events celebrate our spiritual togetherness. This togetherness is expressed in the Pure Land tradition of “Toro Nagashi”—whereby loved one’s names are inscribed onto candle-lit lanterns and bound to the tides’ sea-bound crafts. The Nembutsu prayer of consolation, praise and embody Amida Buddha’s saving Vows—the spiritual light that guides the spirits from the Pure Land and back.

The gracious Nembutsu is spiritually expressed as the oneness of those who have passed with those who remain. With the passage of each human generation, a new generation dawns, challenged with human purpose and renewed meaning. This purpose and meaning are however, not independent, solitary or self-serving. This is a limitless passage—a pathway by which we human beings imagine not, a time that starts after we die, but, of a depth and maturity in living that revitalizes, endures and overcomes death.

Our Pure Land (Jodo) traditions as with other world religions have spiritually imagined and subscribed to various realms of heaven and hell. But for the conscientious inquirer, to speak of “hell”, a term coined in all religions, what is striking is not with those who struggle with the “right and wrong” or the “good and evil”. What is glaring is actually hidden in the human heart—the poisons of greed, anger and arrogant indifference. How shall I live and conduct myself? How shall I interact with others—friends and enemies? What are the unending ripples and effects they have in the world. The Buddha’s great wisdom and compassion are embodied in the love, care and sacrifice of those who came before us. Like various streams entering one great ocean, the various Dharma lineage-traditions provide diverse pathways to spiritual awakening. Please invite family, friends, and guests to join in this, perhaps, the most diverse and popular season on the Buddhist calendar.

West Kauai’s Waimea Hongwanji begins the Bon calendar circuit on June 7-8, Friday and Saturday. June 7th, Friday, 6pm, Hatsubon-Bon service invites all who wish to include their family’s loved one(s) for reading as part of this religious event. IT IS NOT LIMITED TO HATSUBON FAMILIES. Waimea columbarium’s services on both nights begin at 7pm. Names can be written into the 2013 Bon ledger for reading as part of the columbarium services. SIGNUPS CAN INCLUDE NON-HATSUBON FAMILIES, NOT LIMITED TO THOSE WITH FAMILY RELICS IN THE COLUMBARIUM. For “old-timers” neither able to come to the temples, nor maintain the cemetery sites of their ancestors, these ways honor the selfless love and sacrifice of forbears through such events of spiritual togetherness, either in-temple or at the columbarium.

West-Kauai Hanapepe will follow the same venue as Waimea, except its Hatsubon-Bon service and Bon Odori festival will be on July 12-13th, Friday-Saturday, respectively. AGAIN, ALL TEMPLE AND COLUMBARIUM SERVICES ARE NOT LIMITED TO HATSUBON FAMILIES. We simply ask that families sign the temple-columbarium registry prior to the services for readings by the minister.

Lihue Hongwanji 2013 Hatsubon and Bon service is scheduled for July 14th, Sunday beginning at 9am in the main temple. Hatsubon families and others wishing to include loved ones' names in this special service, please come half-an-hour early for sign-ins and confirmations before the service-start. Lihue Hongwanji family members and community columbarium services sign-in with the Bon Ledger on July 19-20th before its 6:30pm service on both nights, Friday and Saturday. Signups may include as with West-Kauai, families' names as part of Lihue Hongwanji columbarium services each evening. AGAIN, family names read for the July 14th Sunday service and the July 19-20 columbarium services ARE NOT LIMITED TO HATSUBON AND COLUMBARIUM FAMILIES.

Finally, a reminder to all—families may schedule their own Hatsubon or Bon services at their discretion with the minister. Scheduling is based on the ability for family members, relations to get-together at their schedule's convenience. And please, first-come-first-serve.

While it may seem not so obvious to some, the Buddha-Dharma, as is every other world religion, much larger than, "just one world religion". Each founder came, not to purposely start a new religion, but persistently disrupted the religious convention and systems dominant in his day. The Buddha, as did Mohammad, and Jesus Christ continue to transcend—go beyond the boundaries and labels of those who try to contain them by excluding others. And while there will always be those of us who desperately want for heaven, and for others, hell, remember they are both alive in our hearts in daily living. That is the amazing mystery of great compassion and unconditional love that joins all life. This is not a show of force or might; This is not manipulated, justified, or coerced. This is a freedom that leaves all the room we (I) need to let it in...

...and as always, the Infinite sighs, "...of course...Yes!"

HAPPY FATHER'S Day!

A Dad's Most Precious Gift

Your Name - a poem by Edgar A. Guest

You got it from your father, 'twas the best he had to give.
And right gladly he bestowed it. It's yours, the while you live.
You may lose the watch he gave you and another you may claim.
But remember, when you're tempted, to be careful of his name.
It was fair the day you got it, and a worthy name to bear,
When he took it from his father, there was no dishonor there.
Through the years he proudly wore it, to his father he was true,
And that name was clean and spotless when he passed it on to you.

Oh, there's much that he has given that he values not at all.
He has watched you break your playthings in the days when you were small.
You have lost the knife he gave you and you've scattered many a game,
But you'll never hurt your father if you're careful of his name.
It is yours to bear forever, yours to wear the while you live,
Yours, perhaps, some distant morning, to another boy will give.
And you'll smile as did your father – with a smile that all can share,
If a clean name and a good name you are giving him to wear.

Hoshakai needs you!

Have you noticed that the church grounds are always beautiful, tidy, and trimmed? Have you wondered who keeps the temple sparkling clean and the flowers fresh and arranged? It's all thanks to a dedicated group of men and women called the Hoshakai group. They gather at the temple every Friday at 7:00 AM and volunteer two or three hours of their time. Like all of us, they have busy lives and have other things to do too. Many of them are elderly, and find it increasingly difficult to manage the work.

You don't have to commit to every week. You don't need to be skilled. You don't need to bring any tools or equipment. If you are willing to help, on Fridays or any other time, please call Ted Inouye at 245-3027.

Ask Rev. Bruce

Q: What is the significance of memorial services had for our loved one(s) such as 1st year, 2nd as 3rd, 7th, 13th, 17th, 25th, 33rd and 50th:

A: We do not have memorial services FOR OUR LOVED ONE, BUT BECAUSE OF OUR LOVED ONES.

Please read last month's and this month's May-June newsletter minister articles.

1. The 7 X 7 Days intervals up through the 49th Day memorial service were significantly influenced by Hindu notions of migrating from previous lives dependent upon one's good or bad behavior (karma). The spiritual aid of the monks and family prayers on behalf of the dead became an integral part of supporting the priesthood in all Buddhist cultures throughout Asia.
2. Chinese Tao numerology and Confucian notions of filial piety significantly influenced the first year memorial service and upward which came into Japanese Buddhist practice and habits.
3. Though cultural and historical themes are integral to religious patterns and habits, it's important to understand that our human notions of heaven and hell, purity and impurity, good and evil persist as long as we lose focus of the primary importance of how we think, speak and live in relation to others. When we act on our fears, anger, lust or arrogance, our lives are closed to self-awareness, reflection, acceptance and inclusion.
4. When we begin to experience a natural connection to a love and compassion enabling us the freedom to choose and wrestle with better choices for ourselves and others, we become more grateful beings; This is not because of what we have, or who we think we are, good or bad, right or wrong. Indeed, it is as-we-are, as-I-am with all my gifts and folly, that love embraces and take me in. Yes, thank you so... In our Pure Land tradition, this gratitude is expressed as Namo Amida Butsu.

Got something on your mind? Submit your questions to Rev. Bruce by email to lhmnew@yahoo.com, by mail, or by dropping it in the slot in the door to his office. Including your name is optional.

Note that he may edit the question for brevity.

EAGLE SCOUTS PROJECT

On May 4 Lihue Hongwanji was the beneficiary of an Eagle Scout Project by Kai Adachi of Boy Scout Troop 83, which is sponsored by Lihue Hongwanji. The project included power washing and striping parking lot lines, repainting the handicap parking and unloading stalls as well as the entry to the handicap ramp access to the temple, repainting the no parking lanes, painting the chain link fencing and gates, and replacing two front light fixtures at the social hall. Kai was helped by scouts Thomas and Matthew Simpkins, Kamden and Kanoa Nii, and Kevin Ikeda. Adults included John Iwamoto, Randy Ikeda, and Corey and Sandy Adachi, who also provided an ono lunch for the hard working group. This summer Thomas Simpkins will be doing his Eagle Scout Project including replacement of emergency exit lights at the entry and back stairway of our social hall under the supervision of electrician and LHM member, Eric Kato. The scoutmaster of Troop 83 is Gilbert Cabot.

LHM thanks Kai Adachi, Thomas Simpkins, their fellow scouts, and adult leaders and volunteers of Troop 83. We appreciate the improvements to LHM's facilities and all that Troop 83 does for the Kauai community in general.

Relay for Life 2013

Relay for Life - Kauai was a great success with 58 teams participating. Lihue Hongwanji made a very respectable showing, achieving the Platinum level having raised $8700+. Mahalo to our very dedicated team of 23 members and friends who solicited donations, baked, cooked, set up camp, made personal donations of time and money and did all that was necessary to make our participation a success. Making the $1000 "club" were Lynne Matsumura, Marian Ogata and Gladys Fujiuchi.

Thank you to our Sangha for your very generous donations.

Contributing to our baked goods table were Lynne Matsumura, Gladys Fujiuchi, Joyce Morikawa, Lynette Mizuo, Charlotte Yasumoto, Muriel Yoshimoto, Carolyn Yamasaki, Karen Nishimoto, Marian Ogata, Colleen Ogino, Arleen Fujikawa, Gail Shibuya and Janet Fujii. Helping with the camp setup were Ted Inouye, Walter Yasumoto, Ray Morikawa and Jimmy Yamamoto. Thank you also to those who helped put the bentos together - Jane Arita, Yuriko Oshiro and Alice Inouye. Thank you also to Kyle Matsumura for the bento boxes. Donations from the sales boosted our contributions into the next level.

The survivor's walk was a truly moving moment as survivors walked the laps, the candlelit luminaries reminding us of the departed ones.

Putting into practice the principle of dana, the giving and caring for others, our team really showed its spirit and caring hearts.

Special to Gladys Fujiuchi for spear-heading this project.

With Deepest Sympathy

Lihue Hongwanji extends its deepest sympathy to the family and relatives of:
The late Fumiko "Florence" Kato who died on April 9, 2013 at the age of 89 years old.
