Message from Bishop Eric Matsumoto

As we enter the Summer, right around the corner is the Fourth of July holiday. While it is a time to relax and celebrate with picnics and fireworks, let us not forget the significance of the Holiday. The most wellknown icon of the United States of America, the Statue of Liberty holds a tablet in her arms with the date July 4, 1776 written on it. Further, on the pedestal at the base of the statue it says "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free." In recent times, with all that is happening in our troubled Nation and around the World and also our own observance of the 150th Anniversary of the First Japanese Arrival in Hawaii, I have found new inspiration and appreciation of what America stands for and the hope it gives to millions and millions of people all over the world especially to immigrants. As I reflect, my own maternal great grandparents immigrated to Hawaii in 1899 with the hope and dream of a better life. Life was hard and the challenges many, but with each passing generation life improved and their descendants, of which I am only one, are grateful for their decision and struggles.

However, there is another reason for which I am grateful. My family, both maternal and paternal, were also Nembutsu followers. As they immigrated to a new land, they also brought with them their religion, Jodo Shinshu. The Jodo Shinshu Teachings, the Nembutsu provided them with hope, strength, courage and stability in a world and life that, at first, was foreign, unfamiliar and froth with uncertainties in so many ways. It was the one beacon that was stable, unchanging, constant and ever present which they knew they could rely upon no matter what else happened. As the Great Pure Land Master Shan-tao said, "The Buddha embraces never to forsake, thus, the Buddha is named Amida." Hence, my maternal grandparents brought with them a scroll of Amida Buddha. This scroll was given to Tamayo and myself on our wedding day at the Reception with all of the guests and family in attendance as witnesses. For me, it is an expression of the aspiration that Tamayo and I, as individuals, would also become aware of and appreciate the Great Wisdom and Compassion of Amida Buddha and Shinran Shonin's aspiration of "May there be peace in the world and may the Buddha's Teaching spread!" The message of All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion is the attainment of Supreme Enlightenment equally by one and all including and especially of this imperfect and limited self. This promise has not changed and continues to call out to each and every one of us.

Most recently, at the World Jodo Shinshu Coordinating Council Meeting held in Kyoto, attended by our State President Pieper Toyama and Executive Assistant to the Bishop Rev. Kazunori Takahashi, I had the honor of giving the following greeting at a dinner.

"Tonight, on behalf of the 4 Overseas Districts (of Buddhist Churches of America, Jodo Shinshu Buddhist Temples of Canada, South America Hongwanji Mission, and Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii), I would like to offer our sincere greetings and also our deepest appreciation.

In this ancient capital of Kyoto wrapped in the verdure of Early Summer to His Eminence Gomonshu Kojun Ohtani and the Members of the Board of Governors and all others (of the various departments) with whom we have the pleasure of meeting as Fellow Travelers who rejoice in the Nembutsu, it is such a pleasure and joy to meet you.

Further, as we heard, earlier today, from the Governor General Bishop Chiko Iwagami about the focus of our Denomination based on the words of Shinran Shonin and brought about by the guidance of Gomonshu on the importance of how we live our life as Nembutsu Followers, and the needed new approach as we reach out to others to share the Nembutsu Dharma, we of the Overseas Districts too, pledge to do our utmost by embracing it and will try our best to share the Nembutsu Teachings in a way that will resonate with others.

Also, I would like to express our appreciation for the continuous support and guidance we receive from all of you (in Japan) including the Hongwanji International Center Staff not only for this Coordinating Council Meeting, but always. Lastly, thank you for this Fellowship Dinner which will strengthen our bond with each other as a world-wide Hongwanji Sangha. Thank you very much. Namo Amida Butsu."

It is the sincere aspiration of Gomonshu that more people will come to know about the Great Wisdom and Compassion of Amida Buddha and the Denomination with new energy is moving to make this a reality. In Hawaii Kyodan's 130th Anniversary year in Hawaii with our 2019 Theme and Slogan of Embrace Change: Transformation (Walk in Peace) and as we head towards the 850th Anniversary of Shinran Shonin's Birth and the 800th Anniversary of the Establishment of the Jodo Shinshu Teachings (in 2023) may we each also embrace Amida Buddha's, Shinran Shonin's and Gomonshu Kojun Ohtani's aspiration as people of Nembutsu.

Namo Amida Butsu.

Gathering of Joy

I experienced something this past Obon on 21-22 June in Lihue. I wish I could share it with everyone who was there, particularly the Sangha members and volunteers. I tried to, at the time, but it was not possible because everyone was so busy. If you should know any of the volunteers, maybe you could let them know.

To say that there was a lot of work done is an understatement to be sure, but I am talking about the spirit in which it was done. I was probably exposed to that spirit past at other temples but I did not have the eyes to recognize it at those times.

As you probably know, Obon is sometimes called Kangi-e. It consists of two kanji both meaning joy, but this is an intense joy.

Every time I have gone to an Obon dance I have had a hard time equating Joy with the occasion perhaps because of so many of my family members passing away within a matter of a few years. Maybe it was the feeling of remorse I felt for not having been an attentive relative as I should or could have been. It was sheer selfishness on my part and I am ashamed of that. What was I thinking that they were going to live forever? Did I think that somehow, the law of impermanence did not apply to my family? Well I found out that it did apply in a devastating way and I had the nerve to feel sorry for myself. Where was the Joy I asked selfishly? This was certainly not the first time I had felt sorry for myself. I should have suspected that.

This time though, it was different. As I was at the temple I looked at all the small chochin on which I had written names, and I apologized to each one of them for my self-centeredness. I guess I was trying to take responsibility for it.

To get back to the preparations for the dance, as any Sangha member knows, the effort towards the completion is massive and it involved many people. All of them were volunteers. Some I saw on a weekly basis while others I did not know but there they were helping out, doing what they could. There they were, helping with the yagura, marking the dance area as well as the eating area, setting up tables for the Country Store, serving counters, and game booths for the keiki preparing and cooking food, cookies, rice, meats, veggies and noodles for saimin and meals and snacks. It was really impressive. Even though they were short-handed this year, it got done.

The attitude with which it was done is what struck me, short-handed or not, people worked together, harmoniously and usually good naturedly. Oh sure, there may have been some friction at times, but that friction came from folks caring about what they had to do and were doing.

Whatever had to be done, there was an element of joy involved, some of it subdued and some of it apparent. I got in on the meat skewering for the barbeques (I had to be schooled in technique) and the folks were joking and teasing and playing with one another. That good feeling continued all through the week right into the dance nights.

Someone had told me that they thought Lihue had the best tasting food during the Obon dance. I wondered about that and had a realization of what could cause that. I am not trying to get metaphysical on you or anything but I really think that the aloha with which the food had been prepared added to its flavor and to the whole event itself.

I know that most folks will think of Obon success or lack thereof, in terms of monies realized but in terms of making it a "Gathering of Joy" which is its purpose, you were a smashing success. So thank you, thank you for helping me grow and that "Gathering of Joy".

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Pieper J. Toyama, President

This year I am focusing my time and attention on four issues. At the half-way point in the year, I want to report on progress made on the four areas.

1. EVALUATING TEMPLE LANDS TO DETERMINE REVENUE-PRODUCING OPPORTUNITIES

- a. We have sent letters to temples to be evaluated.
- b. Consultant Harry Yada of Hilo Betsuin has begun to look at deeds and leases.
- c. Among the land holdings that is being assessed is the Buddhist Study Center.
- d. Temples whose lands are being evaluated may meet with the Bishop and me to discuss the project.

2. PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM* FOR INDIVIDUAL TEMPLES

- a. A Pilot Project may include the Aiea, Hilo Betsuin, Jikoen, Windward, Wailuku, and Puna temples.
- b. The materials and information that will be shared at the training sessions for temples participating in the Pilot Project are being developed.
- c. The target month for piloting temples to launch is this coming Fall in conjunction with Eitaikyo Services.
- d. *Planned Giving is a way of leaving funds to a temple after one's passing.

3. IMPROVING COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN HQ AND

ALL TEMPLE MEMBERS

- a. The June and December issues of the HQ Update will share the breadth of Hawaii Kyodan activities that are happening throughout the state.
- b. All temples are requested to include the entire June and December issues of the HQ Update in their monthly newsletter.
- c. This effort will help to insure that all of our members know of the activities of Hawaii Kyodan. In this way, we hope to give meaning to being a member of Hawaii Kyodan.

4. HAWAII KYODAN FUNDRAISER

a. We have not yet taken any action on this initiative.

5. TEMPLE CONSOLIDATION

a. At the May meeting of the Board of Directors, Bishop Matsumoto reported that the Research and Planning Committee has opened discussions on guidelines for Temple Consolidation or Temple Closing. Bishop emphasized that any change in status of a temple should be smooth and well thought-out and benefit all. He explained that HQ's involvement will focus on developing a win-win situation for all entities involved.

WORLD JODO SHINSHU COORDINATING COUNCIL MEETING

Each year the bishops and the presidents from the overseas districts gather to discuss issues shared by overseas Hongwanji temples. This annual gathering is called the World Jodo Shinshu Coordinating Council Meeting. This year Bishop Matsumoto, Rev. Takahashi, and I represented Hawaii Kyodan.

The single item of importance to all overseas districts was the establishment and funding of the Jodo Shinshu International Office (JSIO) that will be located in San Francisco. We have been tracking the development of this office for over three years so it was exciting to learn that it will become a reality this year. The purpose of the JSIO is to provide the world's people with more opportunities to encounter the Nembutsu teachings.

The priority projects of the JSIO include:

- Further development of Existing Programs (International Ministerial Orientation Program [IMOP] and the Jodo Shinshu Correspondence Course [JSCC].
- Development of New Programs (educational materials for ministers, quarterly journal, website, English-language publications, Buddhist Speakers Bureau, activities to connect overseas ministers with ministers in Japan).

DHARMA SCHOOL SUNDAY SERVICE:

On May 5, 2019, the West Kauai Hongwanji, Lihue Hongwanji and Kapa'a Hongwanji members and friends joined together for a Dharma School Sunday Service at Salt Pond Beach Park in Hanapepe. The setting for the service was beautiful. The gathering consisted of elementary children, high school students, parents, grandparents and Ministers. Everyone enjoyed the ice breakers, games and activities which were prepared for the various age groups. Lunch and fellowship culminated the event. It was a happy and especially fun day for all.

How inconceivable! Throughout the Universe, The ceaseless, boundless immeasurable activity of Namo Amida Butsu Awakens me to what is real and true. This is my reliance, My refuge, My wholehearted trust. (From a translation of the essential meaning of Shoshinge)
